SEPTEMBER 20 CORONA VS.

GANESHA, 24-12... with Ganesha leading 12-0 early in the game things looked down for the Panthers, and yet... with an outstanding defensive performance Ganesha's act was finished. After Corona's opening touchdown by Keeter and Bolock, Jacobs recovered on the Ganesha 32 and on fourth down Corona moved again with Turner hitting Blankenship. Wilkerson made his second conversion and Corona was in the lead. Corona stole the ball again in the second half, scoring twice with a well run offense. With Wilkerson's 28 yard field goal the score was brought to 24-12. Hrachiar and Busby, playing key roles in the defensive kept the Giants down, for victory in the season opener.

SEPTEMBER 27 CORONA VS. APPLE

VALLEY, 39-0... Running a new backfield Corona gained 329 yards to topple Apple Valley. Alfredo Casillas lead the Panthers with 142 yards, including a 47 yard run in the third quarter. Sophomore Greg Pope followed with 121 yards and four touchdowns. It was Corona's ball game both defensively and in the offensive giving the home crowd something to shout about.

PROUD PANTHERS STUMBLE

OCTOBER 4: CORONA VS. POLY, 0-16: The Defensively strong Poly Bears shocked the Panthers in their league opener. On two occasions Corona had the ball in Poly territory, at the end of the first half on a first down Corona had three incomplete passes, and then an interception. Later the Panther's took the Poly kick off driving 43 yards only to again have an interception blanket a hopeful touchdown. Poly got the breaks and a mistimed fumble. They Won.

OCTOBER 11: CORONA VS. COLTON, 6-26: Traveling to Colton, the Panthers successfully stopped star Ted Smith, but Nunn and Staff surprised our offense totaling an impressive list of gains. With minutes remaining Rick Wilkerson intercepted a lateral at the 27 and put the Panthers on the scoreboard. Losing the extra point, the gun found Corona on the bottom of the score. 1. Alfredo Cassilas comes around left end for a first down. 2. Greg Pope is brought down during 3rd down.

OCTOBER 10: COLTON-CROSS COUNTRY. The Corona-Colton cross country meet was a critical test for Corona's runners. Never before in Ivy League history had Corona defeated the Yellow Jackets. The victory was a positive confirmation of strength for Corona. Though the team members were determined to do their best, many silently doubted that would be enough. The edge they needed came in the form of three hundred enthusiastic students, parents and teachers, including the varsity football team and pep squad. The varsity led by Rick McLaughlin and the J.V.'s swept the Colton harriers right off the track. The tremendous performance of the Panther runners, as well as the long overdue acknowledgement of Cross Country prominence made Coach List and his team very proud, and rightly so. 1. Al Sepulveda 2. Greg Fritz, Brijido Ortiz, Bill Ellis.

CLUBS PRESENT CANDIDATES

OCTOBER 15: NOMINATION ASSEMBLY. It was a week like no other. Our fantasies became real. It was a time when "Freedom to be Weird" was shouted from the podiums and echoed throughout the campus. The candidates assembly was the ultimate in obscurity. The theme of "Great Motion Pictures" brought among other things a two hundred and ten pound Fairy Godmother in the form of Rocky Hrachiar. The Wizard of Oz will never be the same to us after seeing Tarlene Werdon as Dorothy and her teeny tiny Toto. Quieting the whole scene down was a "Lonesome Cowboy" by the name of Perry Keeter singing a soft country song. Of course, there were the formally gowned nominees. They reminded us that the assembly wasn't merely another episode of Fractured Fairy Tales, but rather the presentation of the girls we would choose our Homecoming Queen from. 1. GAA presents Martha Daniels. 2. Vampire Tom Fulmer attacks Jim Gosser. 3. Dawn Broesder 4. Cheryl Markel 5. Juanita Mejia 6. Myjean Beyer 7. Cindy Fracasso, Jim Gosser 8. Cindy Fracasso, Teresa Munoz, Sherri Keller 9. Greg Petties, Rocky Hrachiar 10. Kent Christensen, Sheryl Stanfield, Paul Rowe, Debbie Kack.

"MY DEAR . . . IT WAS LOVELY"⁴

"All quiet on the set. All quiet on the set." Camera, Action. Enter Groucho Marx: "My dear you have the brain of a four year old child and I bet he was glad to get rid of it." It was almost too much to comprehend, Dracula, Shirley Temple, a chimp and 15 dancing Charlie Chaplain's all on one stage. If that wasn't enough there were the many hysterical outbursts from the girls chosen for court, whose shrieks and wild crying dared to silence the Jazz Ensemble! In the end, it was agreed, how else can a committee with .29 cents announce the 7 lovelies for Homecoming Court? 1. Mark Barbolak 2. Karen Hatch, Carolyn Adler 3. Sherree Jenkins 4. Vicki Hicks, Robert Kisselburgh, Jeff Lane, Jim Buechler 5. Pam Ross, Marilyn Wall, Chris Blanchette 6. Martha Daniels, Susie Holmes.

PANTHERS TIE RAMONA

OCTOBER 18: CORONA VS. RAMONA, 0-0 The Panther defense held Ramona to an unimpressive list of gains, but failure to build on three opportunities to score kept the Panthers from their first Ivy League win. In the bottom of the third quarter Corona had their longest gain, Greg Pope began with eighteen yards, and Dan Carr took it to the 40 in three runs, only to have a clipping penalty kill Panther hopes for a touchdown. 1. Sherrie Keller 2. End, Brad Blankenship stops Ramona run. 3. Alfredo Cassilas

THE STARS ROLL ON

5

OCTOBER 21: HOMECOMING WEEK ACTIVITIES: A normal run of the mill week, and yet something is different. It was Homecoming. The week was filled with many events following the "Great Motion Pictures" theme. A movie star slave sale starring the mighty Lettermen. Ben Hur wheel barrow. I mean chariot races with winners Mark Chiaro and Steve Radcliff. Students used the Movie Star dress up day to impersonate their favorite movie star characters. On Horror Films day, creepy ghosts and ghoulies drifted on our campus. Long skirts, pony tails, bobby sox, cuffed up levis, slicked back hair, leather jackets and a fifties sock hop allowed us to express ourselves to the tunes of American Graffiti, Elvis, and Chubby Checker.

The "Great Motion Pictures" theme was carried through the Homecoming Parade. This parade was the biggest Corona High has ever had. Clubs and classes participated with floats and marching units. The Proud Panther Band marched and the 1974 Homecoming Court was introduced. Later the Corona Panthers beat the San Bernardino Cardinals 14-0 in a great Homecoming Game. During the halftime the new 1974 Homecoming Queen was announced amid tears and laughter. She was crowned by Cathy Koutroulis at the Letterman's Ball. 1. Rick Wilkerson, Corky Hazle 2. Gary Salazar, Skip Lemon, Mr. Scott J. Karen Hatch, Dan May 4. Frances Washington 5. Kathy Freeze, Rosalie Varela, Yolanda Koine, Mr. Adams, Jeff Markel.

OCTOBER 25: VS. SAN BERNARDINO 14-0 . . . it was homecoming and four thousand fans watched Corona trample San Bernardino, with 274 yards on the ground and 52 in the air. Early in the third quarter, after a scoreless first half. Day made an impressive showing to score, Wilkerson's point-after was perfect. Day again in the fourth went in from eight yards out. Cassillas carried an impressive thirteen times. Defensively sophomores Howard Tucker and Bob McMackin and end Marty Hrachiar made their presence known often, while Reynoso made his usual good showing. 1. After a successful catch, Cisnero runs for yardage. 2. Panthers and Cardinals struggle to recover a fumble. 3. Ramos receives first aid from Panther trainer.

NOVEMBER 1: CORONA VS. NORTH Playing a strong defensive game the Panthers defeated North, their traditional league rival. Being scoreless in the first half the Panthers made it their game early in the third quarter. On the first touchdown Hrachiari recovered a Huskie with Wilkerson adding the extra point. Later Hrachiari struck the Huskie quarterback and the pitch went into the end zone where Ball recovered it for the second Panther touchdown. Wilkerson added another extra point with 4:22 left in the third quarter. The defense held the Huskies till the end of the fourth when they scored again—but not enough. The final gun found Corona with the win. 1 WHOOPS 2 Hrachiari makes tackle with Ramos, Wilkerson assisting. 3. Cassilas keeps his man out on a pass play. 4. Witherspoon breaks up another pass play. 5. Woodward leads the play, as Day round the corner.

PATHER BAND WINS AT MONTCLAIR

NOVEMBER 2: MONTCLAIR COMPETITION: The Panthers Band this year came under the direction of Mr. Ted Adams. Evidently the musicians responded well to his leadership. They've received many coveted awards and honors, Montclair was no exception. The Twirling team received first place, the Drill Team was awarded third and the Drill Flags placed second in overall competition. Debbie Lunetta Corona's Solo twirler received third place honors. 1. Dave Smith and Mike Romme 2. Cecilia Ortiz, Laurie Terrell and Liz Buechler.

PANTHERS DOWN FALCONS

NOVEMBER 11: CORONA VS RUBIDOUX 26-6.

Beginning with two scores, only seconds apart in the first quarter the Panthers shocked the Falcons, bringing the Panther record to 5-2-1. The first score found Marty Hrachiar intercepting at the 40 and going over for the touchdown. After a strange Cisneros kick, Pope scored the second. Things calmed down for the remainder of the first half with the period ending at 13-3. The second half started slow for the Panthers but ended with Turner going over after a 19 yard drive. Then in the final minutes, a 22 yard pass to Dan May led the drive to put May over from 14 yards. Wilkerson's point ended the scoring. With Palm Springs hanging in the distance, CIF becomes a hope. 1. Panthers and Falcons pile up after a Panther offensive play. 2. Sandy Leuf 3. Panther offensive team huddles up. 4. NOVEMBER 9: LESTER OAKS BANDS REVIEW: The honors achieved at Lester Oaks Parade in Riverside, proved the Proud Panther Band to be highly skilled in both marching and playing ability. Parade judges awarded the band second place in overall merit. The first place award for solo twirler went to Corona's Debbie Lunetta. Corona's twirling team was awarded second place. 1. NOVEMBER 15; CORONA VS PALM SPRINGS 29-0: And the stands went wild as Corona rolled over Palm Springs earning a CIF berth. Earning only 14 first downs and 260 yards total offense the Panthers pulled four touchdowns and a safety. Halfback Steve Day scored two touchdowns on runs of seven yards each and Dan Carr found the end zone late in the game. Having a good game all around, even the Panther aerial attack came alive against the Indians. 1. Gregg Pope attempts to block 2. Panther offense fires off the line 3. Bob McMakin stops an Indian runner 4. Wilkerson returning an interception.

NOVEMBER 22: CORONA vs FULLERTON 7-6 In a strong defensive game Corona held the Freeway League champs down to win the first game of CIF. Fullerton scored first with a 34 yard run, losing the extra point. Still in the first half, the Indians punted to Joey Cisneros who took it to the 45. On a third down Turner hit May who went over for the winning score. The second half found both teams held scoreless. In final minutes Corona missed two interceptions by Witherspoon and the clincher by Ball. Somehow, this is beginning to be not the Same ol' Thing. 1, Monty Holden 2, Steve Day 3, Holden and Terrell 4, Steve Day 5, Rick Gillmaster.

CORONA STONES LYNWOOD

NOVEMBER 31: Corona Vs. Lynwood, 10-7: Defense. Defense . . . and again the powerful Corona defense stopped the opposing masses with what Coach Nixon and many felt to be the best showing yet. The Panthers scored in the first half as Turner hit Dan May for 6 and Wilkerson point-after brought the score to 7-0. Then Wilkerson came back at the end of the 3rd quarter with a 19-yard field goal for the final 10. Carlos Reynoso and the offensive kept the Lynwood speed down the entire evening, giving up their TD late in the fourth quarter. It was Corona's night. 1. Busby signals No. 1 for the Corona Panthers. 2. Wilkerson intercepts a Lynwood pass.

AND YET ...

DECEMBER 6: CORONA vs. COLTON 14-27: And it all came to an end but what a season it was. Corona came back strong in the second half but just not enough. After a Colton fumble, early in the third quarter, Corona drove 73 yards for their first score. Lea Sheagley made the touchdown with Rick Wilkerson adding the extra point. As the last minutes faded, Corona took possession on their own 27. Three Turner to May passes and an eleven yard Cisneros gain, the Panthers were on the one yard line. Sheagley was up the middle for his second TD of the night. Wilkerson added the extra point and we were with the Yellow Jackets 21-14. But hopes dimmed after a bad kick and another Colton push making the score 27-14. It was the last game for 24 Panthers... disappointment... but pride. 1. Ramos and the Rock stop Colton's QB. 2. Flying official strikes again. 3. Panther defense stops them again.

Fantastic is one of the few words that describe Corona's 1974 Cross Country season. They finished with an impressive dual meet overall score of Varsity 8-0, Junior Varsity 8-0 and Sophomore 7-1, and that was followed by a finale of the Ivy League Championship. Four Corona runners were named all Ivy League, Rick McLaughlin 2nd, Danny Barton 4th, Robert Arguelles 6th, Greg Fritz 10th. If one believes it was only determination that made Corona's team Ivy League Champions, he only sees a partial picture of the Cross Country runners. To completely understand the success of the team one must consider their pride, stamina and willingness to work. Over the summer, under the direction of Coach Newton four boys ran 1000 miles and nine others ran 500 miles. Coach List was ecstatic about the first Ivy League Championship in four years. He felt that one of the reasons Corona did so well was because of the teams 'great attitude'. A cross country runner has many long lonely miles of preparation to run a relatively short race with no stadium full of cheering fans or pep band. This year was special, for the first time there was student participation in the crowd. Coach List felt the boys "really appreciated it and performed even better." Previously only the coaches and a few people, like the bus driver, even saw the meets. VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY 1. David Barkus 2. Al Sepulveda 3. Gary Peterson 4. Dan Barton 5. Greg Fritz 6. CORONETTES

The Coronettes worked hard this year. The Drill Team and Drill Flags participated in football and basketball halftimes, parades, and other competitions. New sponsors and new uniforms added to a good looking group. The Drill Flags came home from the Montclair parade with a second place trophy. Not to be shown up, the Drill Team came back from Montclair with a third place trophy. They marched with the band at the other parades and even went to Disneyland. But this was not the end. Competitions continued during the spring at different festivals. This year's leaders were Colonel Kim Johns, Captains of the Drill Team, Anne Freeman and Olga Perez, Captain of Drill Flags Terri Murphy and Lieutenant Lisa Jones. 1. JANUARY 14: CORONA VS PALM SPRINGS 3-3:

The Palm Springs soccer game, played on home field, was cited by many as discrimination against the Panthers. Corona took the lead early in the game and after the time was called Palm Springs, without Corona consent, played into overtime, gaining their final point and the tying score. Coach Van Muyen said, "This kind of negligence on the part of soccer officials is sure to be curtailed after soccer is better established in the public schools." Outstanding performances on the playing field were performed by Martin Jaurequi, Raul Cardenas, Ernie Rivas and Ramon Cardenas. 1. Leonard Ramirez moves the ball down field. 2. Manuel Hernandez. 3. CHOIR AND MADRIGALS

Two of the most active, talented groups on campus are Corona High's Choir and Madrigal singers. These groups were very busy in fund raising and performances. The bake sale, car wash, and light bulb sale helped raise money to buy new outfits for the Choir in addition to the regular choir robes.

The Choir and Madrigals performed in a variety of places. During the Christmas season they went out spreading the Christmas cheer. The Choir sang at the Methodist Church while the Madrigals went to Coronita Elementary, Garretson Elementary, the Congregational Church, Tyler Mall and a Madrigal Festival at R.C.C.

Second semester was busier yet for both groups. Special Festival s for both choir and Madrigals started around March. Some of these were held at Riverside Poly and Ramona. These festivals allowed our talented singers to hear and meet the Choirs and Madrigals from other schools. All the hard work paid off as everyone learned to work together and enjoy the art of singing. MADRIGALS: Row 1 (l-r): Ray Shelton, Karen Schremp, Chuck Turner, Valerie Rosenberry, Mike Ryan, Lupe Cervantes, Gaylen Malmberg, Denise Tronti. CORONA WINS FIRST HOME MEET

JANUARY 24; SWIMMING CORONA VS.

NORCO: Corona's first home swim meet took place against Norco after only ten days of frantic practice. The pool opened for practice later than scheduled but that didn't stop Corona from attaining an excellent score against Norco. Both teams battled evenly right down to the last event when Norco took the edge. Aside from a great team effort by the Panther swimmers, there were outstanding performances by Glenn Doran in the 200 yd. individual medley and 100 yd. freestyle, as well as Rusty Mackey's record setting time in the 50 yd. freestyle and 100 yd. breast stroke. 1. GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAMS

The Panther Girls' Basketball team put in a good effort for their first time in league. The main problem was the other teams had been in league for seven years, thus having more experience. Another point was height. The average height of the other teams was always a couple of inches taller than our girls. But our girls faced these obstacles and worked hard giving their opponents stiff competition. Their best game according to Coach Chitwood was against Colton, 40-42. They made their best team effort and really played well. They lost but they made those Colton girls sweat it for awhile. Two of the girls that were really great on the team were Terri Smith and Margret Yancu. Terri handled the ball real well and maneuvered it on the court. Margret was the high scorer on the team and was a strong rebounder. The team as a whole improved as the season progressed.

PANTHERS SOCK RAMONA

FEBRUARY 14: CORONA VS. RAMONA 4-0:

Corona's soccer team once again destroyed their opponents' ability to score. This time the Panthers swallowed up Ramona in a game which delighted everyone but the Rams. Corona's defensive plays kept Ramona's efforts down. The Panthers' aggressive offensive players broke through a tough Ram defense four times. Thus scoring four points and that put them one victory closer to the top of Ivy League standings.

CITY AND SCHOOL DEDICATES NEW POOL

FEBRUARY 21, POOL DEDICATION: As new things must the new pool received the blessing and dedication from the necessary city and school officials. All proclaiming the efforts and exclaiming hopes for their joint effort. Mayor protem - Ira Calvert, Assistant Superintendent Dr. Ramirez and our own Mr. Vaughn each said their words in turn . . . and then with the sound of the gun, the swimming began. In the 400 meter relay, Mackey, Russell, Schick, and Doran earned an impressive victory against San Bernardino. Against Elsinore, new school records were set: Brent Russell in the 500 meter free style with 6.35.3; and Jeff Shick in the 50 meter free style with 27.2. Glen Doran took two first places pushing the Panthers out in front.

SPIRIT WEEK: Oh yes, that age of pre-lenten gaiety . . . tug-of-war, well not quite the tension of the Viking win in Honolulu . . . The senior boys managed to out muscle their male opponents and the sophomore girls easily demolished their lesser. In further class competition, sack race, pyramid building and faculty trike race, the seniors sweep up boredom in victory . . . but fun. In sports, which it was all about the week was highlighted with two swimming victories, basketball over Rubidoux - complete individual victories in field and track, and baseball. Spirit week it was, if you wanted.

RELAXRELAXRELAX

Before a packed gymnasium, J. Fred Zinger presented one of the year's most entertaining assemblies. Hypnotized seniors watched movies through holes in the floor, cried, laughed, had burned careers, and thoroughly entertained the audience. Zinger, president of Hymovation Inc., demonstrated the power of the hypnotic state as he planted his two feet in the rigid mid section of Marlies Mc Mackin or left Corkey Halzle firmly attached to the floor. "You will do better than you ever have before, you will be bright and alert." "You are awake, it's lunch"

The Panther Basketball team played a hard season. They didn't do as well as had been expected, ending with the record of 9 wins and 15 losses. Through it all there were many highlights. The first came when Mark Ludwin was elected the varsity team captain. . . . the team also won the first two league games against San Bernardino and Colton . . . placed second in George Ingalls Tournament . . . playing in San Bernardino Kiwanis tournament . . . won last game of the season. The team is made up of individuals, one of these Mark Ludwin, was named to the George Ingalls Tournament Team. Rusty Ingraham, an important asset to the team, was given an honorable mention in the Ivy League team after averaging 10 points and 6 rebounds a game. At the Father and Son Banquet, Rusty was named the Most Improved Player. Another outstanding player this year was George Beard. This junior averaged 23 points and 8 rebounds a game. He was the leading scorer and rebounder on the Varsity Team. George was given an especially high honor, being named on the 3rd all Ivy League team and was named the Most Valuable Player in Panther varsity. The Junior Varsity worked hard this year, and it paid off. Their game record was 13 wins and 11 losses. They had two special highlights of the season. First, they placed 2nd in the La Sierra Tournament. Second, they placed 1st in the Norco Christmas Tournament. The outstanding players on this year's team were Most Improved Player-Roy Davis and Most Valuable-Georg Ramos. The Sophomore Basketball team had a fantastic season. WRESTLING TEAMS

The Panther Wrestling team worked hard this year. They put in a lot of hard practice preparing for competition with other schools. They started off really strong by winning the first two non-league matches. The first against Norco with a score of 40-28, the second against Norte Vista with a score of 41-24. The Panthers performed well in the league games ending with a varsity record of 3/3. The captain of the varsity squad was Monty Holden. Two outstanding men were Crescenio Pena, who was awarded the Most Improved and Jo Jo Artega was named Most Valuable.

The J.V.'s performed well also. In the non-league games they lost to Norco, but won at Norte Vista with a score of 54-36. The match record for the J.V. wrestlers was 2 wins, 3 losses.

This year's soccer team enjoyed a tremendously victorious season. Hours of practice in preparation for what probably is the most difficult and challenging sport played at the high school level. Under the direction of Coach Edwards Van Moven, the Panthers kept most Ivy League soccer teams defenseless with their aggressive attacks. Finishing with a final score of 10-3-1 Corona attained second place in Ivy Leagues standing. The Damian Tournament was the season's highlight for the team. In a C.I.F. record for overtimes, 21 in all, Ernie Rivas scored the final point making the Panthers champions. Backed by strong team support these athletes brought in high season scores: Ramon Cardenas, Ramiro Rivas, Martin Garcia, Raul Cardenas, Martin Jaurequi, and Jurje Montano. Soccer is finally coming into its own at Corona. It is hoped there are many improvements in the future. For Coach Edwards Van Moven a finer squad of high school soccer players than Corona had this year would have been hard to find.

MOTO-CROSS GOES INTO LEAGUE COMPETITION

The Corona Raceway was the scene for the fierce, car shattering and extremely challenging six school moto-cross meets. Fielding a relatively new team, Corona ended league competition in the upper division placement. Coach Rice stated, "What Corona may have lacked in experience, they made up for in spirit and skill." Their speed and skill managed to place the young team ahead of some excellent and more experienced teams in league competition.

A new music group, Honors Wind Ensemble, joined the instrumental music department this year. It was composed of thirty three members and joined the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and Jazz Ensemble in a busy spring festival and concert season. The highlight of the season was the spring tour. All three groups worked hard preparing for the trip. And what a trip! They performed at such places as Neff High, Chaffey College, Burbank High, Palomar College, and San Diego State University. And they competed at the Band and Orchestra Festival at Fullerton. Many a good time was had in crowded busses and meeting fellow band members from many other schools. The Jazz Ensemble went on tour with both wind ensembles and attended various festivals. Playing music of the contemporary, big band, and jazz eras they entered the Monterey Jazz Festival, and the Southwestern Jazz Festival. Here they competed and exchanged ideas with other jazz groups from the southland. The season ended with a bang as all three groups put on the successful annual Spring Concert. 1. TRACK TEAM

The Panther Track team had a great season. They started the season off by winning their two pre-league meets against Apple Valley and cross-town rival Norco. The team participated in the Palm Springs Relays, an invitational competition and placed second in a field of six teams. The coaches, List, Blankenship, and Newton, were confident in the Panthers ability and named a few outstanding team members: Outstanding distance runners-Dan Barton, Rick McLaughlin, Joe Velasquez, Gary Peterson, and Robert Arguelles. The top notch sprinters were Ryan Hathaway, Ron Cunningham, Greg Petties, Tony Davila and Greg Schmidt. In the field events outstanding Panthers were Perry Keeter, shot put; Craig Stuart, high jump and long jump; Rick Gillmaster, pole vault; and Rory Davis, pole vault and high jump. Fine hurdlers were Brad Blankenship and Carl Sparlin. The highlight of the track season came when the team co-sponsored the Corona-Norco Relays with the Norco team.

What do you mean girls' athletics? We've always had a program for the well-rounded young lady . . . an yet! Under the coaching of Coaches Bowers, Chitwood, Sherman, and associates the girls found themselves in their second year of active competition. And with the second year came CIF recognition of league competition, new ratings and rulings, addition of the badminton squad, matching uniforms, (whatever happened to those charming feminine grey bloomers mother wore), plus development of style and accomplishment in competition. Fielding teams in Volleyball, tennis, badminton, softball, track, gymnastics, basketball, and swimming the year's schedule kept a rapid pace throughout. In volleyball, Coach Bower's girls ended the season third in league competition. In tennis Cindy Odgen led her team mates to an impressive sixth place ranking out of an eighteen school division. In spring, as things often do, the pace became even more rapid for the east locker room gang; as badminton birds found their nest in league play. Softball, track, gymnastics and swimming all forged forward into a full season. Coach Bowers found spring practice with a large turnout for a successful softball season. Under Coach Doug Crow the track women easily defeated Don Lugo 77-4, and Apple Valley 65-26, and as enthusiasm built so did the season. In gymnastics, the professional attitudes and accomplishments of Coach Kathy Trott developed a finer sense of showmanship and performance in her athletes. In competition Linda Wade, Stephanie Snyder, Diane Wilson, and Delite Emery among others, showed much improvement over previous performance. A second year, development . . . and yet . . . success.
